Please note that it is important that the police receive this request as quickly as possible so that it may be given to the Crown prosecutor. Failure to do so may result in no application being made.

I, _____, _____
(Print Name)
request that the Court consider restitution on the following grounds: (Check as many boxes as apply).

A. For damages to or the loss or destruction of property (not to exceed replacement value)

B. For expenses (may include loss of income or support) incurred as the result of bodily harm and psychological harm

$ _____;

C. For expenses incurred as a result of moving out of the offender's household and for temporary housing, food, child care and transportation (may be claimed by a spouse, child or other person who was a member of the offender's household)

$ _____; or

D. Restitution for money lost as a result of the return of stolen property to a lawful owner that you acquired from the offender

The above amount must be easily determined by the Court.

- You are responsible to bring all necessary documents and receipts to Court for the restitution application. (Please attach photocopies of all documents and receipts that are available. This may assist the Crown prosecutor in preparing for the application.)

- If restitution is granted by the Court you are responsible for filing the Order in Civil Court (at no cost) and enforcing the resulting judgment. You may seek independent legal advice with regards to restitution and your civil claim.

- Where the Crown prosecutor determines that the application will be made to the Court, a copy of the Restitution form is provided to the defence counsel and/or offender in accordance with the disclosure practices.
